

Literature Response Forms

Table of Contents

At A Glance™	2
Teacher Assessment Rubric	4
Student Self-Assessment Rubric	5
Planning and Implementation Guide	6
• Why Use Literature Response Forms?
• Introducing Literature Response Forms in a Mini-Lesson
• Organizing Literature Response Forms
• Sharing Responses
• Helping Students Select Appropriate Reading Texts
• Tracking, Assessment and Individual Programing
• Using the Blank Forms
Modeling the Literature Response Activities	8
Teacher-Student Conference Form	13
List of Work Sheets	14
Student Reading Record	15
Student Tracking Sheet	16
Literature Response Activities
• Prediction and Inference	17
• Identifying Important Information	27
• Character Analysis	37
• Summarizing Events	47
• Reasoning and Critical Thinking	57
• Vocabulary Development	67
Blank Literature Response Forms	77

Name: _____
Date: _____
Title: _____
Author: _____

Reading Preparation

Prepare for reading your book by answering the following questions.

1. When was this book written?

2. Who is the publisher of the book?

3. How many pages are in the book?

4. What does the title suggest to you about the book?

5. What do you predict the book will be about, based on the cover?

6. Read three pages of the book – one from the beginning, one from the middle, and one near the end of the book. What do you predict about the book from these pages?

Name: _____
Date: _____
Title: _____
Author: _____

Chain of Events

Each action or event in a text is affected by the event that precedes it. This cause-and-effect relationship is like a chain of events.

Show the chain of events in the text. List the first action or event that occurs in the first box.

List each subsequent event in the order in which they occur.

Cause-and-Effect Chain for _____

_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	➔	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	➔	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	➔
--	---	--	---	--	---

_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	➔	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	➔	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
--	---	--	---	--

Name: _____
Date: _____
Title: _____
Author: _____

Character Impressions

- What kind of person is the main character? List words (adjectives) that describe your impressions of him or her.
- Then, for each of your impressions, write down a phrase from the story that supports it. Note the page number where you found this information.

My Impression of _____	Supporting Phrase	Page #