Animal Tongue Twister Poem

Something happened at the zoo today!

The animals got free and ran away!

I never heard of such commotion!

I hope the zookeeper has a magic potion

To get all the animals where they belong

Without anymore mishaps or things going wrong!

Revising/Editing

1. When the poem is drafted, students should share their five senses poem with peer responders. Provide the Five Senses Poem Response and Assessment Sheet for this purpose.

Peer responders should check to ensure that each line describes one of the five senses, that each line begins with a capital letter and ends with a period, and that each line relates to the chosen topic.

2. Following peer response, students should make any necessary revisions before writing a final copy of the poem.

Publishing

1. Have students create a greeting card to celebrate their favorite holiday. Distribute a sheet of construction paper to each student. Have them fold the paper in half. On the outside of the card, students could attach their drawing from the My Favorite Holiday worksheet. On the inside of the card, students could write the final copy of their five senses poem, using the Holiday Sensations worksheet for structure.
2. Completed cards make a clever bulletin board or wall display!
