

HOW & WHY INSECTS VISIT FLOWERS

How & Why Insects Visit Flowers

A butterfly has landed on a flower. It is searching for nectar, a sweet liquid in the flower's center.

This butterfly is a yellow tiger swallowtail. Nectar is its main food. The butterfly pushes its long tongue deep into the flower to drink.

