

HOW & WHY SEEDS TRAVEL

How & Why Seeds Travel

An apple falls to the ground. Weeks go by. The apple rots away. Now seeds that were inside the apple core lie on the ground.

The seeds sprout, and new apple trees begin to grow.
But a seed sprouts and grows only if it is in the right place—a place with enough sunlight, soil, and water.

