Wild about Animals

People who work at zoos are wild about animals. They hang out with monkeys. They get cozy with giraffes. Sometimes, they swim with sharks. But that's not all they do!

DID YOU KNOW?

The world's first public zoo was set up around 1470 B.C.E. in Ancient Egypt.

Collecting Creatures

It takes a team of people to run a zoo. Head curators (say cue-RAY-tors) lead the team. They decide which animals will live in the zoo.

Some zoos let you see animals up close.
