George Washington ★ and the ★ General's Dog

by Frank Murphy ★ illustrated by Richard Walz

George Washington is one of America's greatest heroes.
Most people know that George was honest and brave.
But there is something about George that people
don't always know.

When George grew up,
he moved to a farm
called Mount Vernon.
Every day,
George checked on
the horses and hogs.

The general of the English army
was named William Howe.
He had a dog, too.
He also had 9,000 soldiers.
They had plenty of supplies.
